A Dozen Mad Italian Demons Attack a Railroad Foreman.

JUMPED ON AND HIT WITH A PICK.

An Exciting Chase, With Shots From Ambushed Fugitives.

TWO ARRESTS, AND OTHERS TO FOLLOW

A large number of Italian laborers engaged in a riot yesterday afternoon at Cork's Run, and Lawrence O'Toole, foreman of the Ohio Connecting Company, was very severely injured. O'Toole had the supervision of a new railroad being laid at Cork's Run, and employed about 19 Italians. At 1 o'clock yesterday afternoon O'Toole told one Italian, known as "Big Dan," that he had no further use for him, and he might consider bimself discharged. The Italian was impudent, and then, becoming enraged, sprang at O'Toole and struck him on the head with a shovel. Nine of the other Italian laborers answered the call of "Big Dan," and made an attack on O'Toole. The latter was trampled, and citizens at Cork's Run interfered and sent word to Sergeant McCurry, of the Thirtysixth ward station, that a man had been killed and that the Italians were rioting.

Officers Shaffer, O'Donnell, Boyer and Miller responded. The Italians took to the woods upon the approach of the police, but were pur-sued by the officers and a number of citizens. The rioters fired over a dozen shots from their covering of trees; but no one was wounded. Frank Gill and Donato Mingo were arrested, after much opposition. The patrol wagon was called, and the arrested men, with O'Toole, were taken to the Thirty-sixth ward station Sergeant McCurry dressed O'Toole's wound and sent him in a carriage to the Twenty-eighth against Gill, Mingo, Joseph Farren, Lam Kosa, against Gill, Mingo, Joseph Farren, Lam Koss, Daniel Foslach, P. Moty, M. Bavi, Joseph Schewing, C. Mozzitt, Henry Wahrr and Patrick Himer, charging them with felonious assalt and battery with intent to kill.

O'Toole was then removed to the Homeopathic Hospital. He is married, 28 years old and resides at No. 42 McCuire avenue, Woods Run. The condition of O'Toole is very serious. His right arm is broken, and his head beaten and cut in a fearful way. The cut on his leg inflicted by a pick is two inches deep and four inches in length. inches in length.

NO IMMEDIATE FEAR OF IT.

Dr. John Dickson Says There Need be Little

Apprehension of an Epidemic. Dr. John Dickson is quoted as having said that the present run of typhoid fever in Pitts-burg and Allegheny is not at all alarming—not so bad as we have had in years past when the hot season reached its climax. He also thinks the danger in the disease germs that infect ice used in drinking water is very remote. He thinks the exceptional run of fever in Alleerally bad sanitation or drinking water-to bad cellars, dirty gutters, etc., for example. The Pittsburg hospitals have no typhoid patients now—they are all in Allegheny.

In this connection there is proof in the following communication that "doctors still disagree," for Dr. L. H. Harris, of the West Penn Hospital Executive Committee, writes:

To the Editor of The Dispatch:

DEAE SIR-In one of the evening papers of today I note the startling head lines. "Typhold Terrora." I have not read the article as yet, but urgently ask, "Cannot the city press more persistently arge upon the people the absolute necessity for more hospital accommodations?" We have not in the city any reasonable accommodations for the slightest special emergency.
There is to-day acarcely standing room in the Western Pennsylvania Hospital. There are 21s patients and but 170 requiliar beds. The entire floor space is utilized at night for temporary cots.
This is an aiarming state of affairs for this season of the year. The walls of this institution have been hitherto very clastic, but are now stretched to their utmost tension. Of these 21s patients 13s are charity. Is there no help? It is hard to refuse charity patients, but what can be done? Patients come to us daily stating that they have been refused admission to other institutions, and hence I take it for granted the others are in like condition.
I write advisediy. In the absence of the Super-To the Editor of The Dispatch:

I write advisedly. In the absence of the Super-intendent I am at the hospital twice daily, two hours in the morning and the same in the evening, and assure you this is no draft on the imagination. Very respectfully,

AN INSANE WEEPER.

The Fate a Hun Who Impersonated Two or

More Orphans. An undersized, homely Hungarian called at Inspector McAleese's office yesterday after-noon, weeping and wailing as if his heart would break. Upon being questioned he produced a letter, written in a plain round hand, which was addressed to the public, and said: "This poor man lost his good wife and his two pre-was addressed to the public, and said: "Inis poor man lost his good wife and his two precious children, besides all his property and personal effects, by the Johnstown flood," concluding by urging that he be financially assisted. The letter was signed P. Skenidge. The man could not talk English intelligibly, and the Inspector took him to Consul Schamberg's office. Mr. Schamberg questioned the fellow closely for a few minutes, and then pronounced him a fraud.

McAleese then told the man to get out of town and left him; but, instead of doing so, he took up a position on the steps in front of City Hall, crying and sobbing in such a manner that in a few moments a crowd of nearly 160 people gathered about him. Controller's Cierk William Reed, who has just returned from a month spear up in the flooded district, went to the weeping individual, and soon got enough from him to prove clearly that he was a fraud. Mr. Reed ordered the fellow away, and threatened to have him arrested; but when he left the hall be went to Central station and presented his letter to Sergeant Gray. The latter recognized him as a man who came to the station drunk about a week ago with the same atony. The Sergeant at once locked him up. He gave his name as Peter Skenidge, the same as that signed to the letter. The fellow is evidently insane, for he kept up his weeping and moaning all afternoon and evening.

A GREAT FIREMAN GONE.

Sketch of the Late Chief James E. Crow. of Allegheny-The Lender Among Veternus in His Line of Duty. Chief Crow, of the Allegheny Fire Department, died at 10:37 o'clock yesterday morning, while in an unconscious state, at his home, 203 Jackson street, Allegheny. His family were around his bedside, and notwithstanding the fact that the doctors had said there was no chance for recovery, still hoped that his robust a large pick was run into his leg. Some The Late Chief-Prom One of His Last Pho-James E. Crow was born in the little town of Findlay, O., July 11, 1836, and if he lived until to-day would have been exactly 53 years of age. When he was only I year old his mother moved to Biairsville, Pa., and after residing there six years moved to a farm in Butler county. At the age of 14 he came to Allegheny, where he attended the public schools until he was 17 years of age. He then engaged as an appren-tice with McKirdy & McGinnis, and learned the carpenter trade. In 1856 he joined the Washington Hose Company, and was made foreman when the salary of foreman was $4 a washington Hose Company, and was hade a month, house rent and coal free. He held the position until the company was disbanded in 1866 and the Friendship company was formed. He was made a fireman of the new company. It was at this time the companies of the fire department got up a fireman's association and asked Councils to give them an appropriation. The representatives of the different companies then elected Mr. Crow Chief. The city decided to take charge of the department and create the office of Chief Engineer. Mr. Crow was chosen in March, 1868, by Councils to fill that position at a salary of $900 per year. He held the position from that time until his death. The salary was increased to $1,200, then to $1,500, again to $1,500 and at present the salary is $2,500 a year.

Mr. Crow was married to Miss Mary E. Palmer in 1859. In 1864 he recruited a company for the 100-day service and was made captain of it. It was Company G, 183d regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers.

It was Company G, 183d regiment of Pennsylvania volunteers.

Mr. Crow made the Allegheny Fire Department what it is to-day and it ranks with the best in the world. It will be impossible to select another person as competent to fill the position. He was held in high esteem by all the men, who will regret his death as they would a brother's. He never lost his presence of mind at a fire, and if there were any danger would prefer to go himself rather than send any of the men. He never sent a man to a place in a fire where he would not go himself. His orders to the men at a fire were more in the form of requests than commands. He was one of the most popular men in Allegheny City, and his many friends repeatedly urged him to permit the use of his name as a candidate for Mayor, guaranteeing his election, but he always declined, saying his place was with the fire department.

The deceased leaves a wife and two daughters, Mrs. David Hunter and Miss Clara Crow. His mother, who is $2 years of age, his two brothers, H. J. Crow, of Los Angeles, Cal, and Samuel Crow, of the Allegheny Water Department, and one sister, Mrs. John Logan, are still living.

A CLOSE CALL FOR BOTH. Alderman Heinrich and an Aged and Portly

Alderman Heinrich, of the Thirty-first ward, Alderman Heinrich, of the Thirty-first ward, and Mr. William B. Taylor, a resident of the same ward, were driving up Maple street yesterday afternoon. As they reached a very steep ascent one of the traces broke, and, the horse becoming unmanageable, the buggy was upset. Both men were thrown underneath, but the Alderman held on to the lines and prevented a runaway. When affairs were righted the men found Shat they had been severely bruised and their clothes badly torn, but neither had been seriously hurt. Mr. Taylor's escape is noticeable, as he is 89 years of age and very stout.

It was shown that the men were merely employed about the place and only assisted at the bar, and they were discharged.

The cases of Charles Hardy, charged with selling liquor without license, and John Mc-Kee, charged with gambling, were continued until Monday, July 22. John Monday, charged with gambling, will also be given a hearing at that time.

Two Mighty Continents

North and South America, beside Guatemala, the West Indies, Australia, and even Europe, are the fields of usefulness in which Hostetter's Stomach Bitters has demonstrated its value as an antidote to malaria, and as a remedy for dyspensia, constipation, rheumatism, neuralgia, biliousness, nervousness, and loss of appetite and sleep. The inhabitants, the medical men of these countries, have spoken in no uncertain tone concerning the efficacy of the great household remedy.

The Johnstown People Select Wisely. The Miss Dix Trust has arranged for a representative to supply sewing machines to the seamstresses at that place who suffered by the flood. The seamstresses had their own selection of the different makes of machines on the market, and in every instance chose the late Improved Singer as being the best adapted for all classes of work. The order was accordingly given the Singer Manufacturing Company No. 8 Sixth street for the entire number required.

EFFECTIVE CHARITY

The Ladies' Relief Committee Winding Up a Good Work.

THE EXPOSITION TO BE VACATED.

Thousands of Garments and Other Goods Sent to Johnstown.

TARDY DISTRIBUTION AT THAT POINT

On Tuesday the ladies of the Johnstown Relief Committee supplied 145 people with 2,000 pieces of clothing, 50 pieces of bedding, 10 barrels and 13 sacks of flour, and 15 cases of canned goods. Yesterday they filled 55 orders, sending away 700 pieces of clothing, 30 pieces of bedding, and 20 sacks of flour. During the day 30 ladies were at work on the sewing machines in the Expo-sition building, making sheeting, towels and table linen.

Another man was furnished with a cork leg vesterday. This is the second one recorded that was ruined in the Johnstown disaster. The man brought his leg along with him, and it was almost flat, having been crushed between two houses. These legs cost $100 euch. A large number of letters of thanks were received from people who had been sup-piled. In many cases the boxes were shipped to them several weeks ago and were not received until Monday.

Mrs. Campbell, Mrs. McCreery and Mrs. Kelly were the ladies in charge yesterday. Mrs. Kelly said she went out to Ebensburg, but had to come back to assist Mrs. Campbell.
While in Ebensburg she found 18 families of 75 persons who had suffered from the flood and had received no aid. They were in destitute circumstances, and she sent them supplies yesterday. She will spend the summer there, and intends to take care of them. Most of the supplies sent lately were consigned to Braddock, where about 1,200 survivors of the dis-dock, where about 1,200 survivors of the disaster are staying with friends.

The Relief Committee will close business on Saturday. Mrs. Kelly said that Mr. S. S. Marvin told the ladies they could use the Exposition building until July 18. He has not notified them to vacate, but they consider it only just to do so. Besides that, the ladies are almost worn out with the exacting labor. A meeting of the Executive Committee will be held Saturday, at which the committee will probably disband. The good clothing, consisting of about 40 large boxes, has been stored away, and will be held subject to the orders of the Johnstown Commissary. The remainder, which is not worth much, will be distributed among the various charity institutions of the city for the inmates to sew into carpet rags. When these are ready the Relief Committee will have them woren into carpet, which will be distributed among the Johnstown people who have again taken up housekeeping.

among the Johnstown people who have again taken up housekeeping.
Yesterday's contributions to the Johnstown relief fundi received by Treasurer Thompson amounted to $25,413 68, making the total $753-813 55. The items were as follows: Citizens of Jackson's Center, Pa., $62 59; citizens of Mercer (additional), $3; citizens of Smithfield, O., $80; Union Sunday school of Roseland, N. J., $20 60; Troy, N. Y. (additional), $1,109 37; citizens of Warrensburg, N. Y., $52 45; citizens of Sheffield, Ill., $79 57; Railroaders' Dramatic Club of Moberty, Mo., $15 50; by Mayor Pearson (additional), $10; Chicago Board of Trade, $25,000.

A SAD ESCAPADE.

The Disappearance of a Shadyalde Young Man Under Suspicion.

Excitement has been caused in Shadyside over the arrest of E. W. Dunn, a clerk in the grocery of W. P.T. Jope, corner of Roup street and Fifth avenue. An information was made against him before Alderman Hyndman Tues day evening, and he was lodged in the Nine-teenth ward station house. He was charged with pernicious activity toward several girls. The charges were entered by Mrs. Wefling, one of the mothers of the girls, but the hearing was nostropped indefinitely through the plead-was postponed indefinitely through the pleading of Dunn's friends, on a promise that he would leave the city immediately, and he was released.

It is said that D. B. Maxwell, at one time an attorney here, one of whose sisters, it is alleged, was assaulted by Dunn, met the latter while he was driving about the city early Tuesday evening, jumped into the vehicle and gave him a good body beating, and then had him arrested on a charge of disorderly conduct. Dunn left a deposit of $30 for his appearance and returned to his home to find Captain Mercer in waiting to arrest him on a more serious charge.

object through the court. Steven H. Geyer, Esq., County Solicitor, has drawn up a petition to the court, in which he sets forth the advisability of disposing of the buildings as soon as possible. This petition is to be presented to the court to-day.

County Commissioner Mercer was asked yesterday what would be done with the buildings if the court should grant permission to sell. "I am not able to say anything about the matter at present," he said. "We must wait and see what the court says about the petition. The buildings are utterly useless at present, and while unoccupied they suffer. I suppose, though, that the buildings will be publicly sold as soon as we get permission to do so."

Immediately after the suit had been entered the two men met again. They decided to settle the matter between them, and, it is claimed, adjourned to Heltzhoover borough, where a ring was formed. Four rounds were fought according to Marquis of Queensberry, and the men quit satisfied.

Armitage held that he had had the best of it,

JUST $200,000 NEEDED.

Necessary for the Exposition. Chairman Bindley, of the Exposition Finance Chairman Bindley, of the Exposition Finance Committee, said yesterday: "To complete the buildings and equip them for a successful opening, we must double the force of men now working; we must have plenty of cash. We must raise the $200,000, and have it where we can use it at once. We appreciate the magnitude of the work to be done, but we propose to show the people we are equal to the emergency, and we will be."

Denying the Allegation. In reply to the statement credited to County Liquor Detective McCall regarding the "evil of the social club system," the officers and several of the privates in the County Democracy Club answer, and with some heat, that there has never been a glass of beer or liquor sold in its rooms since their establishment.

JACOB'S WELL OUTDONE.

Phree Nice Ones in Alleghenv Parks-One Them Finished at a Depth of 120 Feet-Eighty-Five Feet of Water in It.

There will soon be an abundance of pure, cool well-water in the Allegheny Parks, and cool well-water in the Allegheny Parks, and the residents who have been silently sipping under the notion that they were drinking a Johnstown decoction, will be enabled to discover what uncontaminated water tastes like. The well which has been donated to the city of Allegheny by George W. Snamen was completed yesterday. It is situated in the West Park, near the foot bridge below the artificial lake. In speaking of it yesterday Park Superintendent William Hamilton said that a generally erroneous impression as to the nature of the wells was abroad among the people. They have been termed artesian wells, while in fact they are not. The name artesian means a flowing well. not. The name artesian means a flowing well. The new wells in the park are to be bored; but they will not flow, and pumps will be put into them to raise the water. The well put down by Mr. Snamen is 120 teet deep. In boring, the drill pierced 2 feet of soil, 38 feet of sand and about 15 feet of slate stratum, and entered an excellent water sandstone a depth of 65 feet.

AYesterday afternoon there was 85 feet of water in the well. This morning the iron pump will be put in and the handle will be attached to the steam drilling machine. This will be kept in operation about six hours, to see if the water can be exhausted. In case it is, the well will be sunk deeper. In the contract the driller agreed to get a sufficient supply of water, of which Mr. Hamiiton is to be the judge. not. The name artesian means a flowing well

About noon yesterday work was begun on the new well donated by Mrs. J. M. Gusky. It is situated just below the band stand, near the planthouse. It is expected to be completed by Monday, as the drillers work day and nie planthouse. It is expected to be completted by Monday, as the drillers work day, and night. A good supply of water is expected in this well, as Commodore Kountz had a private one completed on Tuesday, about 90 feet distant, at which the steam pump worked all day and night without exhausting the water.
The well donated by Strasberger & Joseph is to be located in the Second ward park, opposite

Hurley was taken to jail and will have a hearing before Justice Creelman, of Wilkinsburg, Saturday.
